Announce Plans To Crush Military Power Of Reich

Japan's Largest Port Left Ablaze After Bomb Raids

Nearly 500 Superfortresses Take Part In Incendiary Raid On Kobe, Japan

CITY BURNED OUT IS FLIERS' REPORT

By KENNETH McALEER
U.S. Staff Correspondent

GUAM, June 5.—Vast dockyards and industrial areas of Kobe, Japan's largest port, were left flaming today by some 450 to 500 Superfortresses which showed more than 3,000 tons of fire bombs on that city near fire-seared Osaka.

Triumphal crew members, returning from what they described as one of their most successful strikes, declared that Kobe now can be "written off" as an important target.

Flaming from bases in the Marianas, the B-29s of the 21st Bomber Command swept in over highly-industrialized Kobe in mid-morning. Bombers, followed by incendiary bombers, dropped their payloads.

Heavier Fighter Opposition

Heavier fighter opposition than the Japanese have been sending in recently was encountered by the raiders, who said that enemy anti-aircraft batteries were both thick and accurate.

Japanese propagandists, admitting that fires were started in the eastern part of Kobe and in adjacent Aichi, claimed that a total of 200 Superfortresses were destroyed or heavily damaged by Japanese defense forces. There was absolutely no confirmation of these claims.

Shortly after 21st bomber command headquarters revealed that 115 square miles representing 18.5 percent of Osaka now has been burned out, the returning B-29s.

BELSEN HORROR CAMP DESTROYED BY FIRE

Black smoke curls skyward from the buildings of the Belsen prison camp in Germany as hundreds of its former inmates watch the flames consume the horror camp where they had suffered as prisoners of the Nazis. Captured by the British in the final stages of the war in Europe, the camp held 28,000 inmates. Flame throwers were used to burn every last vestige of the place. This is a British official photo.

New Type Nazi U-Boats Almost Prolonged War

By ALLAN J. FUNCH
U.S. Staff Correspondent

ABOARD ADMIRAL INGRAM'S FLAGSHIP AT AN EAST COAST PORT June 5.—Nazi U-boats using a type of equipment which permits them to remain under water as long as seven weeks at a time almost prolonged the European war and the final arrival of V-E day.

This was disclosed today in International News Service by Admiral Jonas H. Ingram, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet.

Only the abrupt end of the war before the Nazis were fully able to capitalize on this startling improvement in underwater warfare saved allied shipping from further substantial losses, Admiral Ingram declared.

The Germans had fitted their subs with a device which permitted them to stay under for seven weeks without coming up.

The effectiveness of this improvement was shown by the fact that one U-boat did not sink a single ship in the last part of the war in the western Atlantic after the fall of 1944, the admiral emphasized.

Ingram said that the Nazis used the device on all their operating subs and that it was not used only on a limited number of special type summer subs.

The four Allies said that they would exercise complete control over Germany and that they would not allow the German people to exercise any influence over their own future.

Repentant Nazis Seeking Release From Vera Cruz

Group Of 200 Repentant Nazis Ask Mexican Government To Release Them

By H. EDWARD KNOBLAUGH
U.S. Staff Correspondent
SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—It was learned on reliable authority here today that some 200 Nazis who have been interned at Fort Perote, in the state of Vera Cruz, Mexico, have petitioned the Mexican government for their release.

According to this information, the internees set forth in their petition that as long as Nazism was the official doctrine of the German Reich it was the "duty of every good German to believe in it."

Anxious For Freedom

The statement that they are now aware of their error, and are anxious to secure their freedom as soon as possible.

Some of the attendants at the prison were quick to point out that the Nazis' repentance coincided with a sudden stoppage in their movements. Before the Third Reich fell, each of the internees was reported to have received two pesos daily from Germany, paid through the Swedish consulate at Mexico City.

The 200 Germans, confined at Perote, comprised a party of the crews of three German ships seized by the Mexican government at the outset of the war.

In Constant Danger

Twenty-one of the men were given their liberty a year ago after they had avowed their antipathy to Nazi doctrine. After they had so declared themselves, and up until the time they were released, they were in constant danger from their former comrades. Guards were forced to intervene on several occasions when the anti-Nazis were being roughly handled by "fanatical fellow-Germans."

A few months ago a handful of the more dangerous Nazis staged a short-lived revolt at Perote.

The overwhelming majority of the thousands of Germans settled in Mexico had not interned during the war, but had to remain within the limits of the country and of several other large cities in Mexico.

As to the petition for releases submitted by the 200 "converted" Nazis, it is reliably stated that the Mexican government will take no action before knowing the viewpoints of the United Nations, and of the United States in particular.

"HOW'D THE UMP GET IN THE GAME?"

WHETHER it's baseball or business, Americans expect fair play all the way.

In baseball, the umpire sees to it that the game is played according to the rules. But he is not a player.

In business, the government should be the umpire who enforces fair rules.

But when government goes into business and competes with its own citizens, the American tradition of fair play is set aside. The umpire then becomes a player, and he enjoys advantages that are denied to all the other players in the game.

For example, government and municipal power-plants are not required to pay federal taxes; often get money from the U. S. Treasury at little or no interest; make up losses out of the pockets of the taxpayers.

Maybe you run a store or service station or beauty shop. Would you like to have a next-door competitor who has little or no rent, or taxes, or interest to pay, and who is kept in business partly by your tax money?

Fortunately for America today, over 80% of the tremendous amount of electric power in this country is produced by tax-paying, self-supporting electric light and power companies, owned and operated by several million folks like you.

These business-managed companies are a big reason why there is enough electricity to meet even the gigantic demands of war—and why, when most things cost more, electricity is still delivered at low pre-war prices.

Two German Boys Are Executed By Allied Riflemen

Two Youngsters, 16 And 17, Guilty Of Espionage As Hitler Aids, Dispatched

PARIS, June 5.—(INS)—Two German boys, identified as Heinz Petry, 16, and Joseph Schoner, 17, both members of the Hitler youth organization, have been executed by an Allied firing squad for espionage against American forces in the Aachen area, supreme headquarters announced today.

The executions took place "recently," the announcement said, although the offenses occurred during February.

In passing sentence, the president of a general military court which tried the boys said:

"Your German military leaders and your Nazi politicians wrote the rules of this game, and we have no choice but to fight fire with fire and blood with blood."

If they are under the impression they can escape the consequences of their acts by hiding behind women and boys they are badly mistaken.

You will pay the supreme penalty for your offenses so that the German people will know we intend to use whatever force necessary to eradicate completely the blight of German militarism and Nazi ideology from the face of the earth."

Outdoor Week-End On Boy Scout Schedule

Patrols Plan Own Meals, Cook And Live Out From June 8 To 10

As a preliminary unit of camp life, Boy Scout patrols will be moving out to the Boy Scout camp on Friday afternoon, June 8, and will bivouac there until Saturday morning.

Each patrol will make up its own menu before it starts out, will cook its own meals during the camp-out. After arriving at the camp site, the scouts will be under their own boy leadership, said Thomas C. Allen, scout executive, in explaining that the purpose of the camp-out was to strengthen the patrols as units of scout activity.

Thomas L. Patten, chairman of the scout council's camping and activities committee, will be camp director with a number of counselors on hand as camp observers during all of a large part of the camping period.

Activities for the week-end will consist of camp tasks, pack work, cook and camp life and games. The first Scout of Honor ceremony, Friday, 8, will be the night of the Star, Eagle and Life honors. The camp-out will be a special camp fire will be held to honor the families of the boys and will be highlighted by the song "Dixie," as told by Nicholas R. Casillo.

Garden Notes

For a continuous supply of beans, plant some every two weeks until August and keep the pods picked as soon as they reach edible size.

Fruits of egg plant do not set easily; the plants are kept growing steadily. Pruning off the ends of the branches and leaving only two or three blossoms on a branch helps the fruits to set.

To grow properly, carrots must be kept weed free, especially when they are small. Weeds soon smother young carrots.

Endive closely resembles lettuce in its requirements and habits of growth except that it is not as sensitive to heat. For this reason it may be substituted for lettuce whenever lettuce is impractical.

To give bean, an extra germinating push, soak them in water overnight before planting. After soaking the beans, pour off the water and allow them to dry for an hour.

Light sandy soil requires a great deal of water and can stand a lot. Heavy clay soil should be watered sparingly for if it becomes soggy from too much watering it may turn sour.

Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER, City Health Superintendent

A HAIR CUT OR A TOOTH

Most of our boys are pretty particular about their hair. They want a hair cut rather often. They are not so particular about their teeth. Some boys do not have their teeth cared for because of the expense.

Maybe it would be better to visit the dentist rather than the barber. Boys' teeth should be examined often. The first sign of a cavity should be investigated. Every effort should be made to save the teeth.

Of two million boys examined in the draft, 188,000 failed on the dental requirements.

It is a calamity for a boy or girl to lose a tooth. Parents and teachers have a big responsibility.

ARMY WORK HORSE

NEW YORK.—(INS)—The 105-mm howitzer is the "work horse" of the Army. The Ordnance Department Army Service Forces, has developed no less than four versions: mounting 105-mm. howitzer, motor carriage, a medium tank, an airborne version, and the standard field howitzer. The usefulness of these weapons is best illustrated by the fact that our armies in Europe fired 4,426,000 rounds of 105-mm shells in the first three months after D-Day. At Aachen alone 300,000 rounds were fired.

Draft Board Gets Unexpected Company

Pittsburgh Woman Leaves Two Of Three Children With Board As Hubby Goes To War

PITTSBURGH, June 3.—(INS)—Mrs. Sophie Farnham, 25, left behind her three children with a Pittsburgh draft board when she said they laughed at her pleas not to draft her husband, Alfred, 29.

But it was all expected to be straightened out today in municipal court. Social workers were taking the case up with the Red Cross and seeking to give her assistance.

Mrs. Farnham, with her youngest child, Vivian, an infant in her arms, appeared before a magistrate. While the mother said she had heard of government allotments for herself and children, she did not know when the money would be paid.

When asked why she left her children with the draft board she explained:

"My husband was taken to the Army and I'm sickly and have nobody to help me. I went to the draft board and told them, but they only laughed at me and I left them there."

The two children were Richard, four, and Alfred, two.

IS IRREGULARSteels And Aviation Stocks Strong
But Others Lag In Trading Today

NEW YORK, June 5.—(INS)—The stock market staged an irregular advance today. Steels and aviation stocks were strong but many other sections of the list showed evidence of profit taking.

First hour trading volume approximated 330,000 shares.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube and U. S. Steel started about a point each. In the aircraft stocks, Boeing and Consolidated Vultee improved about 3-4 each. Douglas Aircraft continued its wide variation, jumping nearly 4 points after yesterday's sharp dip.

Rails were active and mixed. Chemicals, communications, and utilities were bid higher.

Common futures moved narrowly. Grain futures were quiet with rice down more than a cent a bushel. The bond market was quiet.
